

Student Counseling Services

Student Counseling Services, located in 115C Hathorn Hall, offers a variety of clinical and consultation services free to MSU students Monday through Friday from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Appointments may be made in person or by calling 662-325-2091.

Student Counseling Services staff is composed of experienced professionals with training in counseling, social work, and psychology who are knowledgeable in facilitating personal growth and development. Student Counseling Services offers individual and group counseling, workshops, psycho-educational groups, and walk-in urgent care. Consultation regarding student concerns is available to concerned faculty, staff, students, and family members. For more information about services, please visit the Student Counseling Services at <http://www.health.msstate.edu/scs/>.

Sexual Assault Services

Sexual Assault Services are provided by Student Counseling Services. Our Victim Advocate Coordinator works closely with the Title IX Director to provide crisis response, assessment, and direct support in the event of a sexual assault. The Victim Advocate Coordinator is available to provide further consultation and referrals. Please visit <http://students.msstate.edu/sexualmisconduct/> for information regarding the sexual assault policy.

For information or to report a sexual assault case, students and members of the University community may contact the Victim Advocate Coordinator at Student Counseling Services (662-325-2091), Safe-line (662-325-3333), the Title IX Director (662-325-8124), the MSU Police Department (662-325-2121), the Dean of Students' Office (662-325-3611), or visit the website at <http://www.health.msstate.edu/sas/>.
