

Educational Specialist Degree Completion Requirements

The requirements for the Educational Specialist degree are the same as those for the Master's degree and can be found in each respective section of the Master's degree requirements.

- The Educational Specialist degree (Ed.S.) is offered by the College of Education and is comprised of a planned program of at least 30 semester hours above the Master's degree under the direction of a major professor.
- Check Requirements Quick Reference (<http://catalog.msstate.edu/archives/2019-20/graduate/admissions-information/requirements-quick-reference>) for admission requirements for specific programs.
- Consult Admissions Information (<http://catalog.msstate.edu/archives/2019-20/graduate/admissions-information>) and the Educational Specialist program descriptions in the College of Education (<http://catalog.msstate.edu/archives/2019-20/graduate/colleges-degree-programs/education>) section.
- To apply online, please go to the Graduate School (<http://www.grad.msstate.edu>) website at <https://www.grad.msstate.edu/>.
