

Educational Specialist Degree Completion Requirements

The Educational Specialist degree, or EdS, is an advanced degree beyond the master's degree and is offered by the College of Education..

- The EdS degree is comprised of a planned program of study, with a minimum of 30 credit hours of graduate study beyond the master's degree, under the direction of a major professor.
- The EdS degree is offered in the following program areas:
 - Counseling
 - Educational/School Psychology
 - Elementary Education
 - Secondary Education
 - Special Education
 - School Administration
 - Teacher Leadership
 - Technology
- Check Requirements Quick Reference (<http://catalog.msstate.edu/archives/2023-24/graduate/admissions-information/requirements-quick-reference/>) for GPA admission requirements for specific programs.
- To apply online, please go to the Graduate School (<http://www.grad.msstate.edu/>) website at <https://www.grad.msstate.edu/>.